INT. TARDIS - DAY

REPEAT OF 3.13 SC.92. THE TARDIS in flight. THE DOCTOR walks around the console. Deep in thought. And then...

EXPLOSION! The Doctor's showered with debris!

He's on the floor. Coughing. Smoke in the air. He waves his hand to clear the air, looking up. Gobsmacked.

THE DOCTOR

What? But... what??

FX: WIDE SHOT, the PROW OF A SHIP, an old-fashioned liner, now sticking through the whole of the right hand wall of the Tardis, filling half the space.

The Doctor finds in the debris, a lifebelt. He flips it over. It says: TITANIC.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

What??!

(End repeat, new material.) He leaps to his feet, slams away at the Tardis console. Engines roar -

FX: the prow of the ship withdraws through the hole.

He slams more switches, the Time Rotor rising and falling, the sound of materialisation filling the air...

INT. SMALL CUPBOARD - NIGHT

Tiny, dark linen cupboard, just big enough for...

FX: the TARDIS materialises.

THE DOCTOR comes out, still brushing himself down. Pats the Tardis, to make sure it's okay. Then opens the cupboard door, steps out.

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 22 - CONTINUOUS

THE DOCTOR steps into -

Large space, reception desk, all wood & marble, more TITANIC signage, STEWARDS passing to and fro, and GUESTS in their finery, chatting, laughing. It all looks very 1912... almost. It's part luxury-liner, part hotel. And it's decked out for Christmas, nice big tree, nothing gaudy, all very period and classy. The Doctor walks through...

Men in black tie. Ladies in posh dresses. Staff looking immaculate. A WAITRESS in uniform - ASTRID, young, bright, feisty - walks past, carrying a tray. Then he sees -

CONTINUED:

Two GOLDEN ANGELS, guarding a set of internal doors. THE HEAVENLY HOST. Like metal statues - tall, with beautiful gold, blank faces, simple tunics, hands locked in prayer, folded wings, glowing haloes suspended above by thin struts. One of them slowly turns his head. Looks at the Doctor.

Black eyes in a gold face.

The Doctor creeped out, then distracted by seeing -

BANNAKAFFALATTA strolling past, in black tie; three foot tall, head like a spiky red conker.

The Doctor's getting the hang of it now, goes to porthole set in the wall.

CU the Doctor, framed in the porthole.

Riiight....

CUT TO:

EXTERIOR FX SHOT - NIGHT

FX: LONG HERO FX SHOT, pulling back to see the whole ship - A SPACESHIP, exactly like the Titanic, but with mighty antigravity engines underneath. Keep pulling out wider, to see the vessel sailing majestically above the Earth. Over this:

TANNOY
The Titanic is now in orbit above Sol 3, also known as Earth, population: Human. Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to Christmas!

CUT TO OPENING TITLES

OMITTED

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

Quiet and dark. A long room, rather than deep; computer banks, still with brass ship's fittings, and centre, a big, wooden SHIP'S WHEEL, facing windows, which look out on to BLACKNESS. An oil painting of the boss, Max Capricorn, stares down.

CREW operating controls, in smart 1912-ish uniform - NB, everything on board is only an approximation of the period. CAPTAIN HARDAKER stands centre - 60, wise, calm.

CAPTAIN HARDAKER
Orbit nice and steady. Good work, Mr Cavill. And maintain position.

(MORE)
CONTINUED:

CAPTAIN HARDAKER (CONT'D)
(more relaxed)
Now then, gentlemen, according to the traditions of the planet below, Christmas is a time of celebration. I think you might be entitled to a tot of rum. Just the one! Off you go, I'll keep watch.

The men head off, except MIDSHIPMAN FRAME, young, nervous.

And you, what was it..?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Midshipman Frame, sir. Only just qualified, sir. First trip out!

CAPTAIN HARDAKER
Then you can stand down, Midshipman.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
But, um... Regulations say the Bridge has to be staffed by two crewmembers at any one time, sir.

CAPTAIN HARDAKER
Well said. Very good! Should be nice and quiet. It's only a Level Five planet down below, they don't even know we're here. Silent night, I believe they call it. A silent night.

And they stand together, on duty.

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 22 - DAY

An advert, horizontal lines visible, seen on a TV screen. The Reception is empty except for MAX CAPRICORN to CAMERA - 50, bit of a showman, gold tooth, waxy black moustache,

MAX
Max Capricorn Cruiseliners, the fastest, the furthest, the best.
And I should know, cos -
(big smile, CU)
My name's Max!

FX: his gold tooth goes ding!

Screen blips, footage replays, and PULL OUT TO REVEAL:

CUT TO:
INT. CORRIDOR OUTSIDE ENTERTAINMENT LOUNGE - NIGHT

Pulling out, Max Capricorn looped on a wall-screen. THE DOCTOR watching as he adjusts his bow-tie; he's back in his dinner suit. He's ready, he walks through -

CUT TO:

INT. ENTERTAINMENT LOUNGE - NIGHT

THE DOCTOR walks in.

Christmas decorations, tables & booths with GUESTS, milling around; dotted about, HEAVENLY HOST, standing perfectly still; then a dance floor, COUPLES dancing, then a stage, with SINGER & BAND, performing Winter Wonderland.

FX: CROWD REPPLICATION, all having a good time.

The Doctor strolls through, looking round...

His POV: BANNAKAFALATTA, dancing away.

His POV: another table, MORVIN (male) & FOON (female), a large pair, tucking into buffet. They like their food. For some reason, they're dressed as cowboy & cowgirl.

Passing the Doctor, a BUSINESSMAN - RICKSTON SLADE, late-20s, sharp, ruthless - on his slim, futuristic mobile -

RICKSTON
- it's not a holiday for me, not while I've still got a vone, now just do as I say and sell - !

- as the Doctor heads towards a HEAVENLY HOST.

THE DOCTOR
Evening, Passenger 57, terrible memory, remind me, you would be..?

Its voice is calm, posh, neutral, movements smooth and controlled, rather than robotic.

HOST
Information: Heavenly Host.
Supplying tourist information.

THE DOCTOR
Good! So, tell me again, cos I'm an idiot, where are we from?

HOST
Information: the Titanic is en route from Planet Sto in the Cassavalian Belt. The purpose of the cruise is to experience primitive cultures. This voyage is designated: Christmas.

CONTINUED:

THE DOCTOR
Titanic, who thought of the name?

HOST
Information: it was chosen as the most famous vessel of Planet Earth.

THE DOCTOR
Did they tell you why it was famous?

HOST
Information: all designations are chosen by Mr Max Capricorn, President of Max/Max/Max/Max/Max -

He's broken, stuck, jerks his head with every 'Max' -

THE DOCTOR
Oops! Bit of a glitch -

He's about to sonic the Host, but three STEWARDS rush in -

CHIEF STEWARD
Sorry sir, we can handle this - software problem, that's all, leave it with us, sir. Merry Christmas!

He presses a button on the back of the Host's neck -

It snaps rigid, upright, a statue, topples to the side - one Steward catches its torso, the other picks up its legs, and they carry it out, like a dummy. All fast and discreet.

Chief Steward walks with them, mutters to Stewards, angry -

CHIEF STEWARD (CONT'D)
That's another one down, what's going wrong with these things..?

The Doctor turns, distracted by a crash -

RICKSTON SLADE, still on his vone, yelling at the waitress, ASTRID - he's barged into her, making her drop her tray -

RICKSTON
Oh for Tov's sake, look where you're going! This jacket is a genuine Earth antique!

ASTRID
I'm sorry, sir -

RICKSTON
Yeah, you'll be sorry when it comes off your wages, sweetheart -

(walks off, on vone)

Staffed by idiots! No wonder Max Capricorn's going down the drain...

The Doctor scoots over to help Astrid pick up shards of glass.

THE DOCTOR
There we go, careful...

ASTRID
Thank you, sir, I can manage.

THE DOCTOR
Never said you couldn't! I'm the Doctor, by the way.

ASTRID
Astrid, sir, Astrid Peth.

THE DOCTOR
Nice to meet you. Merry Christmas!

ASTRID
Merry Christmas, sir.

THE DOCTOR
Just Doctor, not sir.

ASTRID
Enjoying the cruise?

THE DOCTOR
Yeah, I suppose, I dunno. Doesn't quite work, a cruise, on your own.

ASTRID
You're not with anyone?

THE DOCTOR
No, just me, just... Used to be, but, um... No. What about you? Long way from home, Planet Sto.

ASTRID
Doesn't feel much different. Spent three years working in the spaceport diner, then I come all this way, and I'm still waiting on tables.

THE DOCTOR
No shore leave?

ASTRID
We're not allowed, they can't afford the insurance. I just wanted to try it, just once...

Saying that, standing, both going to the window.

FX (and REPEAT): EARTH below them. Romantic image, the two framed against the spacescape. Both quiet, intimate:
ASTRID (CONT'D)
Never stood on another world. I used to watch those ships heading out to the stars. Always dreamt of... Ohh, sounds daft.

THE DOCTOR
You dreamt of another sky. A new sun. New air. New life, the whole universe teeming with life, why stand still when there's all that life out there?

ASTRID
...yeah.

She's a bit dazzled. Hold, then break the moment -

ASTRID (CONT'D)
So! Um. D'you travel a lot, then?

THE DOCTOR
All the time. Just for fun. Well, that's the plan, never quite works.

ASTRID
You must be rich, though.

THE DOCTOR
Haven't got a penny.
(whispers) Stowaway.

ASTRID
Kidding me.

Seriously!

ASTRID
(laughing)
No!

THE DOCTOR
Oh yes!

ASTRID
How d'you get on board?

THE DOCTOR
Accident! I've got this sort of ship-thing, I was just rebuilding her, left the defences down, bumped into the Titanic, here I am. Bit of a party, I thought, why not?

ASTRID
I should report you.

THE DOCTOR
Go on, then.

ASTRID
I'll get you a drink. On the house.

And she walks away, smiling.

CUT TO:
INT. HOST STORAGE, DECK 31 - NIGHT

Slam! the damaged, dead HOST from sc.9 is slammed up against a wall.

WIDER: CHIEF STEWARD stands back. Big signage, DECK 31. The area is full of deactivated HOST, some with wires running into the walls as though recharging, others in pieces, a disconnected Host head on a table, etc. (NB, this is Below Decks, all pipes and steam and oil.)

He goes over to an ENGINEER, who's giving hand-signals, 'forward,' to a FORK LIFT TRUCK, which has two deactivated HOST stacked up on its scoop, horizontally, like dummies.

CHIEF STEWARD
That's eight of them now, on the blink. One woman, she asked the Host to fix her necklace, it almost broke her neck. In First Class!

ENGINEER
I've been over the robotics, nothing. Like something's got into them, some sort of bug.
(to the truck)
Okay, park 'em in Bay 15.

The Fork lift truck turns.

CHIEF STEWARD
Tell you what, if you can't fix them... Throw them overboard.

He walks away, the Engineer goes over to the truck. Pause. Closer on the deactivated Host, closer...

And it slowly turns its head to watch the Chief Steward go. Dead black eyes.

CUT TO:

INT. ENTERTAINMENT LOUNGE - NIGHT

The SINGER starts Wish It Could Be Christmas Every Day, the dance floor livens up.

CUT TO a table of GLAMOROUS PEOPLE, cruel, laughing at:

MORVIN & FOON, cowboy & cowgirl, eating a basket of chicken wings. With dignity. THE DOCTOR slides in to join them.

THE DOCTOR
Something's tickled them.

FOON
They told us it was fancy dress.
Very funny, I'm sure.

CONTINUED:

MORVIN
They're just picking on us cos we didn't pay, we won the tickets in a competition.

FOON
I had to name all five husbands of Joofie Crystalle in By The Light Of The Asteroid, d'you ever watch By The Light Of The Asteroid?

THE DOCTOR
Is that the one with the twins?

FOON
That's it! Oh it's marvellous!

MORVIN
But we're not good enough for that lot, they think we should be in steerage.

THE DOCTOR
Can't have that, can we?

And he gives a discreet whirr of the sonic screwdriver -

PRAC FX: on the GLAMOROUS TABLE, the champagne bottle - centre of the table, in a ice-bucket - pops open on its own, champagne spraying all over the POSH GUESTS!

Morvin & Foon hooting!

FOON
Was that you?

Maybe.

FOON
Oh we like you!

MORVIN
We do! I'm Morvin Van Hoff, and this is my good woman, Foon.

THE DOCTOR
Foon! Hello! I'm the Doctor.

FOON
I'll need a doctor, time I've finished with that buffet. Have a buffalo wing! They must be huge, these buffalo, so many wings!

TANNOY comes over:

Continued: (3)

Foon
Ooh, Red Six Seven, that's us!
Are you Red Six Seven?

The Doctor
Might as well be!

Morvin
Come on then! We're going to Earth!

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 22 - NIGHT

Mr Copper, the Ship's Historian - 60, shambolic, in a tweed suit - holds up a sign, like a Saga Holidays rep, 6-7 on a red card. He stands at a small Teleport Plinth, which has control buttons on top. 4 guests already with him.

Mr Copper
Red Six Seven, this way, if you could convene, fast as you can, Red Six Seven departing shortly...

Morvin & Foon hurry towards him, The Doctor following - Astrid just passing by -

Astrid
I got you that drink -

The Doctor
And I got you a treat! C'mon -

- he takes the tray, slams it down, pulls her across, fast -

- to join Mr Copper, the Doctor shows his psychic paper.

The Doctor (Cont'd)
Red Six Seven, plus one.

Mr Copper
Hurry up then, if you could take a Teleport bracelet, both of you -

Morvin & Foon are already taking metal sci-fi bracelets from a rack, the Doctor & Astrid do likewise, muttering -

Astrid
I'll get the sack.

The Doctor
Brand new sky!

Astrid thinks: to hell with it!, thrilled, grabs bracelet.

The group clusters together, facing Mr Copper at his plinth.

CONTINUED:

MR COPPER
To repeat, I am Mr Copper, the ship's historian, and I will be taking you to Old London Town in the country of Yookay. Ruled over by Good King Wenceslas. Now, Human beings worship the great God, Santa. A creature with fearsome claws. And his wife, Mary. Every Christmas Eve, the people of Yookay go to war, with the country of Turkey. They then eat the Turkey-people, for Christmas dinner. Like savages!

THE DOCTOR
Excuse me, but... where did you get all this from?

MR COPPER
I have a first class degree in Earthonomics, now then, stand by -

BANNAKAFFALATTA
And me! And me! Red Six Seven!

BANNAKAFFALATTA, running towards them, waving a ticket.

MR COPPER
If you could take a bracelet, sir.

As Bannkaffalatta does so, then joins the others:

THE DOCTOR
But hold on - what's your name?

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Bannakaffalatta!

Okay, Bannakaffalatta, but - (to Mr Copper)
Isn't he going to stick out a bit?

MR COPPER
They have a saying on Earth, red spiky face is a good spiky face.

THE DOCTOR
But it's Christmas Eve down there, late night shopping, tons of people, he's like a talking conker - no offence - but he'll cause a riot, cos the streets are gonna be packed -

But Mr Copper presses a button on the plinth -

FX: THE GROUP disappears, teleport glow.

CUT TO:
EXT. CITY STREET - NIGHT

THE DOCTOR
- with shoppers and parties and...
Oh.

Mr Copper's waving an Earth-type credit card.

MR COPPER
Now, spending money! I've got a credit card in Earth currency, if you want to buy trinkets or stockings or the local delicacy known as beef. And don't stray too far, it could be dangerous! Any day now, they start boxing.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Very good! Very good!

As the GUESTS start to spread out:

THE DOCTOR
...it should be full, it should be busy, it's... Something's wrong.

But during all this, Astrid looking round, eyes wide.

ASTRID
...but it's beautiful.

THE DOCTOR
Really? D'you think? It's just a street, I mean, the Pyramids are beautiful, and New Zealand, and -

ASTRID
It's a different planet! I'm standing on a different planet! There's like... concrete! And shops! Alien shops! Real, alien shops! Look, you can't see the stars! And it smells, it stinks, this is amazing! Thank you!

And she gives him a great big hug.

THE DOCTOR
Yeah, come on, let's have a look -

He takes her hand, both run over to a free-standing NEWSSELLER'S BOOTH.

CONTINUED:

On duty, a 50 y/o bloke, STAN, Londoner. Comfy in his booth, with a thermos and a portable TV on a shelf. All the newspaper headlines say: LONDON DESERTED, etc.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Hi there, sorry, obvious question, um, where's everyone gone?

STAN Scared.

THE DOCTOR
Right, yes, scared of what?

STAN
Where've you been living? London! At Christmas! Not safe, is it?

THE DOCTOR
But why?

STAN
It's them! Up above.

And he gestures to the portable, NEWS 24, clips of the 2.X SYCORAX SPACESHIP, straplines: LONDONERS IN FESTIVE FEAR.

STAN (CONT'D)
Christmas before last, we had that big bloody spaceship. Everyone standing on the roof!

TV: 3.X RACNOSS WEBSTAR, etc; THIRD TIME UNLUCKY?

STAN (CONT'D)
Then last year, that Christmas Star, electrocuting all over the place, draining the Thames.

ASTRID
This place is amazing!

STAN
This year, God knows what. So everyone's scarpered, gone to the country. 'Cept me, and her Majesty.

On TV -

The CHIEF STEWARD striding over -

CHIEF STEWARD
Apologies, ladies and gentlemen and Bannakaffalatta, we seem to have suffered a power fluctuation, if you'd like to return to the festivities, and on behalf of Max Capricorn Cruiseliners, free drinks will be provided -

ASTRID - avoiding Chief Steward - whispers to THE DOCTOR:

ASTRID
That was the best. The best.

THE DOCTOR
What sort of power fluctuation..?

CUT TO:

CAPTAIN HARDAKER at a computer panel, MIDSHIPMAN FRAME at a second one. All calm and normal:

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Seems to be power diverted to Deck 31, sir. Flared up, then it stopped.

Nothing to worry about, she's an old ship. Full of aches and pains.

A beep from a different panel, Frame goes over.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
That's a bit odd, sir. The meteoroids are changing course. Still. We can put shields up to maximum, just in case.

CAPTAIN HARDAKER
As you were, midshipman.

Frame turns round to look - CAPTAIN HARDAKER operating computer controls, fixed, grim, quiet. Frame realises:

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Sir? You're magnetising the hull. It's drawing the meteoroids in, sir, I take it that's deliberate..?
Bit of a light-show for the guests?

CAPTAIN HARDAKER
Something like that.

INTERCUT ACTION WITH CU TV IMAGE, HORIZONTAL LINES, SC.7, Max Capricorn saying 'The fastest, the furthest, the best/The fastest, the furthest, the best,' the phrase stuck on a loop, the FX ding! of his tooth, now becoming sinister.

THE SINGER in his element, the song wild and vicious.

PRAC FX: STEAM, belches of FIRE, but...

The shaking subsides, slowly.

THE DOCTOR, holding ASTRID, lifts his head. OTHERS on the floor, covered in rubble... but alive. Foon's screaming.

THE DOCTOR
Hush, hush, hush, shut up! Sorry!
But just - just shhhhh....

Silence. Pause. All looking round. Then:

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
It's stopping...

CUT TO:

EXT. FX SHOT - NIGHT

FX: LONG HERO FX SHOT [angle as sc.48], the TITANIC now with three holes along its length, the space all around the ship glittering with debris. It maintains its position, stays upright, groaning, like an injured beast. But then all the lights flicker and go off, one by one, like the ship is dying.

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #1 - NIGHT

(NB, lights off throughout the ship now, but NOT total darkness. Just nicely dark!) THE DOCTOR with ASTRID.

THE DOCTOR
You all right?

ASTRID
...yeah. Think so, yeah.

THE DOCTOR
Bad name for a ship. Either that, or this suit is really unlucky.

He stands, brushing off debris. He's distracted by a quiet tinny voice, 'My name's Max! Ding!/My name's Max! Ding!/My name's Max! Ding!' - COMMS PANEL, sc.7 stuck on a loop.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Yeah, thanks, Max.

And he stabs the off button.

Then, action - the Doctor goes to the STEWARD, who's lying flat out; b/g, a low babble, recovery; ASTRID going to MR COPPER, clearing rubble off him, he's saying 'Oh dear, bit unfortunate...', MORVIN going to FOON, 'Are you all right, sweetheart?' And she's crying, hugs him, RICKSTON dazed, 'My vone, where's my vone?', BANNAKAFFALATTA grunting 'Not good, not good', the CHIEF STEWARD standing, dazed.
CONTINUED:

The Doctor clears metal pipes off the Steward, checks his pulse. Looks across at the Chief Steward. No, he's dead.

CHIEF STEWARD
Everyone! Ladies and gentleman, and Bannakaffalatta... I must apologise. On behalf of Max Capricorn Cruiseliners. Um. We seem to have had a small collision -

Which provokes a sudden hysteria - all improvising round:

MORVIN
What d'you mean, small?

FOON
We could've been killed!

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Very bad! Very bad! Bannakaffalatta cross!

RICKSTON
D'you know how much I paid for my ticket?!

CHIEF STEWARD
If I could have silence. Ladies, gentlemen, please...
(then bellows:)
Qui-et!!!

Which works, they shut up.

In b/g, during the Chief Steward's speech below, the Doctor nips over to Astrid and Mr Copper, crouches beside them -

Thank you. I'm sure Max Capricorn Cruiseliners will be able to reimburse you for any inconvenience. But first, I would point out that we're very much alive, though I would suggest that each and every one of you is given the once-over by the ship's medic. Free of charge. If you could all stay here, while I ascertain the exact nature of the situation -

The Chief Steward turns to the door (the door they were heading towards) - shunks! the handle, releasing the seal -

The Doctor tending to Copper, only just seeing this - yells -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Don't open it - !!!

FX: the DOOR - pushed away from the Chief Steward - is ripped off its hinges, door & Chief Steward are schwupped! through the air, through a ragged, metal hole beyond, where more corridor should have been, now leading into OPEN SPACE -

PRAC WIND blasts through the corridor - ferocious! -

COMMS PANEL flashing red: VACUUM BREACH

Astrid, Mr Copper, Morvin & Foon, Rickston, Bannakaffalatta holding on for dear life, clinging to anything -

THE Doctor flings himself against the COMMS PANEL, sonics -

CU Astrid, holding on to a pipe, blasted by wind, screaming -

The Doctor sonics, frantic - COMMS blips to: OXYGEN SHIELD.

FX: bwip! over the ragged hole, the ripple of a FORCEFIELD.

The wind stops.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Everyone all right? Astrid? Foon? (yeahs from all)

Morvin, Mr Copper? Bannakaffalatta?

You, what's your name?

RICKSTON

Rickston Slade.

THE DOCTOR

You all right?

RICKSTON

No thanks to that idiot.

ASTRID

The steward just died!

RICKSTON

Then he's a dead idiot!

THE DOCTOR

All right, calm down - just stay still, all of you, hold on...

He makes his way down the corridor, towards the hole. Astrid follows him (others recovering in b/g).

They squat together at the ragged-metal edge.

FX: THEIR POV, SPACE BEYOND full of tumbling fragments of metal and little floating BODIES. Intercut with:

ASTRID
...what happened..? How come the shields were down?

THE DOCTOR
I don't think it was an accident.

ASTRID
(upset)
But... how many dead?

THE DOCTOR
We're alive. Just focus on that. I'll get you out of here, Astrid. I promise. Look at me. I promise.

And she gives a small smile.

ASTRID
Okay.

THE DOCTOR
Good. Now then. If we can get to reception, I've got a spaceship, tucked away, we can all get on board and... Oh.

FX: HIS POV, far-off, the TARDIS in space, gently tumbling.

ASTRID
What is it, what's wrong?

THE DOCTOR
That's my ship, over there.

ASTRID Where?

THE DOCTOR
There, that box, that little blue box.

ASTRID
That's a spaceship?

THE DOCTOR
Oy, don't knock it.

ASTRID
Bit small.

THE DOCTOR
Bit distant.

ASTRID
Haven't you got a remote control?

CONTINUED: (4)

THE DOCTOR
That would be a really good idea. One of these days.

ASTRID
But if you can manipulate the oxygen field, can't you just loop it out? Sort of, lasso the box back in?

THE DOCTOR
That's brilliant. Oh, that's brilliant! You're good, you are!

ASTRID
Try my best!

THE DOCTOR
Trouble is, when it's set adrift, it's programmed to lock on to the nearest centre of gravity. And that would be... the Earth.

CUT TO:

EXT. FX SHOT - NIGHT
FX: the TARDIS, with the WRECKED TITANIC in b/g, tumbles through frame, then falls fast, accelerating, towards the EARTH, becomes a glowing red dot as it disappears below.

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #1 - NIGHT

ASTRID
Maybe not then.

THE DOCTOR
Maybe not.

CUT TO:

INT. HOST STORAGE, DECK 31 - NIGHT
FX PRAC FLAMES still burning, SMOKE & STEAM, but calmer.

The ENGINEER, on the floor, backed up against the FORK LIFT TRUCK, trapped under a GIRDER. Heaves. Can't move.

ENGINEER
Don't just stand there, get this thing off me!

THE 6 HEAVENLY HOST - untouched by dirt - are simply standing, unmoving, a distance away. Observing him.

ENGINEER (CONT'D)
Host! That's an order! Help me! That's your job, isn't it?

CONTINUED:

HOST
Information: we now have only one function.

ENGINEER
...and what's that?

HOST
Information: to kill.

It reaches up, unclips its HALO; it simply lifts free of the thin struts supporting it, PRAC LIGHT Halo still glowing

ENGINEER
(panicking)
What are you doing? I'm ordering you, stop it! Stop it, right now!

The Host aims the Halo like a Frisbee - throws -

FX: HALO whizzes towards CAMERA -

CUT TO REVERSE, FAST ZOOM IN to the Engineer's face, like a HALO POV, as he screams his last

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #1 - NIGHT

THE DOCTOR on COMMS (b/g, ASTRID and BANAKAFFALATTA helping MR COPPER, MORVIN & FOON, RICKSTON searching for his vone).

THE DOCTOR
Deck 22 to the Bridge, hello?
Deck 22 to the Bridge, is there anyone there?

SCENE CONTINUES INTERCUT WITH SC.60.

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

Shattered. Girders, rubble, computers smashed (wheel still intact). PRAC FLAMES here and there.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME, in great pain, hauls himself to the COMMS.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
...this is the Bridge.

THE DOCTOR
Hello sailor! Good to hear you! What's the situation up there?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
...we've got air... the oxygen field is holding... But the Captain. He's dead.

Looking across: CAPTAIN HARDAKER buried by rubble. Panicky:
CONTINUED:

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME (CONT'D)
He did it, oh my Vot, he took down the shields – there was nothing I could do, I tried, I did try –

THE DOCTOR
All right, just stay calm, tell me your name, what's your name?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Midshipman Frame.

THE DOCTOR
Nice to meet you, sir –

Rickston interrupting, having found –

RICKSTON
My vone's not working! I paid a fortune for this thing!

THE DOCTOR
Yeah, not exactly top of the list
Mr Frame, what about the lifeboats?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
They're all offline: like it's deliberate...

THE DOCTOR
What's the state of the engines?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
They're um... Hold on...

He has to pull himself to another panel, groans with pain –

THE DOCTOR
Are you injured?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
I'm all right...

(consults readout)
Ohh, Vot. They're cycling down.
Power's gone.

THE DOCTOR
That's a Nuclear Storm Drive, yes?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Yeah.

THE DOCTOR
And the moment they're gone, we lose orbit?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
(realises)
The planet...

THE DOCTOR
Oh yes. If we hit the planet, the Nuclear Storm explodes. And wipes out life on Earth.

CUT TO:

EXT. FX SHOT - NIGHT
FX: the stricken TITANIC groaning, with THE EARTH below.

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #1 - NIGHT

THE DOCTOR on COMMS to MIDSHIPMAN FRAME.

THE DOCTOR
Midshipman, you need to fire up the Engine Containment Field and feed it back into the Core -

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
That's never gonna work - !

THE DOCTOR
Trust me, it'll keep the engines going till I can get to the Bridge.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
But we've got an automatic SOS, they'll be sending rescue ships, they can stabilise the Titanic -

THE DOCTOR
Wait a minute... Rickston, did you say your vone's not working?

RICKSTON
Oh now you're interested!

THE DOCTOR
Give it to me. Give it!
(inspects it)
But this is Solar Plus Vone. It should work anywhere.

RICKSTON
That's what I was saying!

Mr Frame. There's no signal.
(MORE)

CONTINUED:

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
 Someone's transmitting a blanketing field, nothing's getting out, not even the SOS. No one's coming, no rescue ships. We're on our own.

Everyone's listening to this; FOON starts to cry.

FOON  BANNAKAFFALATTA
We're going to die! Bad people! Bad!

MR COPPER  ASTRID
Are you saying But why? We're just a someone's done this cruise ship! on purpose?

The Doctor hangs up the comms, faces them:

THE DOCTOR
Okay, okay, just hush! First things first. One, we're gonna climb through this ship. B, no, two, we're gonna reach the Bridge. Three, or C, we're gonna save the Titanic. And coming in at a very low four, or D, or that little i-v in brackets they use on footnotes, why? Right then! Follow me -

He starts heading off, back the way they first came -

RICKSTON
Hold on, who put you in charge? Who the hell are you, anyway?

THE DOCTOR
I'm the Doctor. I'm a Time Lord. I'm from the planet Gallifrey in the constellation of Kasterborous, I'm nine hundred and three years old, and I'm the man who's going to save your lives and all six billion people on the planet below. Got a problem with that?

RICKSTON
...no.

THE DOCTOR
In that case... Allons-y!

CUT TO:

INT. STAIRWELL - NIGHT

An ordinary lower-decks stairwell, wrecked, pipes and girders & rubble everywhere; the door at the bottom is pushed open, debris falls away, and THE DOCTOR leads ASTRID, RICKSTON, MR COPPER, MORVIN, FOON & BANNAKAFFALATTA through.

THE DOCTOR
Careful, now. Follow me.

He heads up, stepping over debris. As they ascend:

MR COPPER
It's rather ironic, but this is very much in the Christmas Spirit. It's a festival of violence! Humans, they say, only survive the season, depending on whether they've been good or bad. It's barbaric!

THE DOCTOR
Actually, that's not true, Christmas is a time of peace and thanksgiving and, oh what am I on about? My Christmases are always like this!

Towards the top of the first staircase, he's found a deactivated, broken HOST, sprouting wires and cables.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
We've got a Host! Strength of ten! If we can mend it, we can use it to shift the rubble.

MORVIN
We can do robotics! Both of us!

FOON
We work in the Milk Market, back on Sto, it's all robot staff.

THE DOCTOR
See if you can get it working.

(moves on)
Now, let's have a look...

He & Astrid carry on up, reach the first landing, look up:

A TANGLE of METAL GIRDERS & STRUTS has fallen, blocking the top of staircase 2, before the landing. The tangle is deep, but with a gap, a small tunnel, centre.

ASTRID
It's blocked.

THE DOCTOR
So what do we do?

ASTRID
We shift it.

THE DOCTOR
That's the attitude! Rickston! Mr Copper! And you, Bannakaffalatta - look, can I call you Banna? It's gonna save a lot of time.
CONTINUED: (2)

BANNAKAFFALATTA
No! Bannakaffalatta!

THE DOCTOR
All right then, Bannakaffalatta, there's a gap, in the middle – see if you can get through –

Bannakaffalatta heads up staircase 2, towards the gap/tunnel, the Doctor, Astrid, Mr Copper, Rickston follow –

On staircase 1, Morvin & Foon sit, to work on the Host. The blank gold face staring up. (NB, it's lost its Halo.)

CUT TO Bannakaffalatta, crawling through the jagged gap.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Easy! Good!

CAMERA SHAKE: the whole ship lurches –

PRAC dust, bits of rubble, tumble down, everyone tense...

It stops. But the Tangle is creaking, ominously.

RICKSTON
This whole thing could come crashing down, any minute.

THE DOCTOR
Oh, Rickston, I forgot, did you get that message?

RICKSTON
No, what message?

THE DOCTOR
Shut up.

CUT TO Bannakaffalatta – he's climbed through, reaching the top landing, which is relatively clear.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Bannakaffalatta made it!

ASTRID
I'm small enough, I can get through...

And she heads through the gap, it creaks:

Careful.

ASTRID
No, I'm fine...

RICKSTON

Thing is, how are we gonna get Mr and Mrs Fatso through that gap?

THE DOCTOR

We make the gap bigger. So start!

As they get to work on the staircase 2, clearing metal, CUT BACK TO Morvin & Foon on staircase 1, clipping the Host's wires together, by hand. But Foon heard Rickston, and she starts to cry:

MORVIN

Heyyy, come on, sweetheart. Don't listen to him.

FOON

No, but it's all my fault, though. The tickets.

MORVIN

We won them, fair and square.

FOON

I know. But I never told you... I dialled the competition line five thousand times. That's five thousand credits, we might as well have paid for the tickets. I've been hiding the vone bill for months now.

MORVIN

Five thousand credits...? You spent five thousand credits?

FOON

Don't hate me.

And Morvin starts to laugh. Really laugh.

FOON (CONT'D)

What's so funny?

MORVIN

Five thousand!

FOON

But we'll never pay that off.

MORVIN

I know! We'll have to work for twenty years! You mad bloody woman!

FOON

(starts to smile)

You're not cross...?

MORVIN
Does it matter? Look at us! Who cares about money?! Oh, you drive me barmy! I don't half love you, Mrs Van Hoff, c'mere -

And he gives her a big hug, both laughing.

CUT TO staircase 2, Morvin & Foon's laughter echoing up, the Doctor, Rickston & Mr Copper clearing the gap:

RICKSTON
What happened, did they find a doughnut?

CUT TO the top landing on the far side of the tangle, Astrid now there, hauling out a plank of metal, calling through:

ASTRID
I can clear it from this side, just tell me if it starts moving...

Putting the plank down, she sees Bannakaffalatta, behind her, on the floor, heaving for breath. Goes to him -

ASTRID (CONT'D)
Bannakaffalatta, what's wrong?

But Bannakaffalatta puts a finger to his lips; ssssh.

(hushed)
What is it?

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Can't say.

ASTRID
Are you hurt?

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Ashamed.

ASTRID
Of what..? If you tell me, I can help.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Poor Bannakaffalatta.

And he opens his shirt.

Underneath, his torso is METAL, with blinking lights.

ASTRID
...you're a cyborg!

BANNAKAFFALATTA

CONTINUED: (5)

ASTRID
No, but everything's changed, now! Cyborgs are getting equal rights. They passed a law, back on Sto, you can even get married.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
(cheeky)
Marry you!

ASTRID
Well, you can buy me a drink, first. But it's different, these days, you don't have to hide any more. Come on, let's recharge you.

She presses buttons, his lights blink, he breathes deep.

ASTRID (CONT'D)
There you go. Just sit there for a bit.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Tell no one.

ASTRID
I promise.

She gets back to work, pulling out another sheet of metal.

THE DOCTOR OOV
What's going on up there?

ASTRID
Oh, I think Bannakaffalatta and I just got engaged.

She gives him a big smile, Bannakafalatta's chuckling away!

CUT TO:

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME's now stripped off his jacket, opened his shirt, has just patched up his bullet wound, using a first aid kit. In great pain. Then, the weee-ooo of comms -

He scrambles to the comms-panel, wincing.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
This is the Bridge.

KITCHENHAND
...this is Kitchen Number Five.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
How many of you are there?

KITCHENHAND
Six of us. Just about. Are we the only ones left alive, sir?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
No, there's more on Deck 19 - hold on, if I reverse the scanner...

He presses buttons. On screen, GRAPHICS: a grid-layout of the Titanic, with a good few dozen BLIPS all over the ship.

Life signs! There's about... fifty, sixty people, still alive, all over the ship, hold on...

GRAPHICS: grid zooms in, 6 BLIPS in KITCHEN 5.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME (CONT'D)
I can see you! Kitchen Five, there you are! Listen, everyone's heading for the Bridge, don't go portside, there's no air, can you make your way starboard?

KITCHENHAND
We're stuck, the doors have sealed.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Can you force them open?

KITCHENHAND
We've tried, they must be jammed or something, we can't get out - no, wait a minute -

Clank! the Kitchenhand and the 5 survivors turn, look -

The handle on the door is turning, the seal hissing open.

KITCHENHAND (CONT'D)
It's opening, there's someone on the other side!

Door swings open -

FIVE HEAVENLY HOST standing there, impassive.

(silence)
Yeah? Did you get that? Kitchen Five, report. Hello, Kitchen Five?

And then, suddenly, OOV: screaming! Blood-curdling.

Kitchen Five, what's happening?
Kitchen Five?! Report!

KITCHENHAND OOV
It's the Host!! It's the Ho...

Midshipman Frame hauls himself round, to look - the door has a central porthole, now filled with an impassive unmoving HOST's face. Staring at him.

Cut to:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #2 - NIGHT

Corridor as others: wrecked, rubble, PRAC FLAMES here and there. RICKSTON, MORVIN & FOON, BANNAKAFALATTA (now recovered), MR COPPER then THE DOCTOR & ASTRID hurry through a BIG METAL DOOR - the Doctor sonics, it slides shut.

Foon's spotted a shattered metal hostess-style-trolley -

FOON
Morvin, look! Food!

RICKSTON
Oh great, someone's happy.

MORVIN
Don't have any, then.

But Rickston's starving, joins them - Astrid takes charge -

ASTRID
All right, that's my job, share it out, careful with the water, we might need that...

All except the Doctor gather round the trolley, settle, eating, a moment's rest. The Doctor goes to the COMMS; a distance away, back by the door, so this can be sotto. The comms screen is playing sc.7 on a loop, 'My name's Max!', ding! the Doctor impersonates it:

THE DOCTOR
Ding!
(then on comms)
Mr Frame? Still there?

Scene continues, intercut with:

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME back on COMMS.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Yes, sir. But I've got Host outside, I've sealed the door.

THE DOCTOR
They've been programmed to kill, why would anyone do that?
MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
That's not the only problem, Doctor. I had to use a maximum deadlock on the door. Which means... No one can get in. I'm sealed off. Even if you can fix the Titanic, you can't get to the Bridge.

THE DOCTOR
Okay. Right. Fine! One problem at a time. What's on Deck 31?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
That's down below, it's nothing...

He brings up the TITANIC GRAPHICS GRID, which also pops up on the Doctor's comms panel. Both study it.

Just the Host Storage Deck, that's where we keep the robots.

THE DOCTOR
But what's that...?

On DECK 31 GRAPHIC, a small rectangle of absolute black.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
D'you see? That panel of black, it's registering... nothing. No power, no light, no heat.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Never seen it before.

THE DOCTOR
100% shielded, what's down there...?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
I'll try intensifying the scanner.

THE DOCTOR
Let me know if you find anything. And keep those engines going!

Hanging up, as Astrid brings the Doctor some food, and both hunker down, to eat.

ASTRID
Saved you some. You might be a Time King from Gaddabee, but you still need food.

THE DOCTOR
Yeah. Thanks.

ASTRID
Although, you're looking good for nine hundred and three.
THE DOCTOR
You should see me in the mornings.

ASTRID
Okay.

Little smile between them, cheeky.

Mr Copper's heading over to them.

MR COPPER
Doctor! Must be well past midnight, Earth time. Christmas Day.

THE DOCTOR
So it is. Merry Christmas.

ASTRID
This Christmas thing, what's it all about?

THE DOCTOR
Long story. I should know, I was there. I got the last room.

MR COPPER
But if the planet's waking up, can't we signal them? They could send up a rocket or something.

THE DOCTOR
They haven't got spaceships.

MR COPPER
No, I've read about it, they've got shuffles. Space shuffles.

THE DOCTOR
Mr Copper, this degree in Earthonomics, where's it from?

MR COPPER
...honestly?

THE DOCTOR
Just between us.

MR COPPER
Mrs Golightly's Happy Travelling University and Dry Cleaner's.

ASTRID
But d'you mean you lied to the company? To get the job?

MR COPPER
Wasted my life on Sto.

(MORE)

MR COPPER (CONT'D)
I was a travelling salesman, selling this and that, just junk and tat, always on the road. I reached retirement with nothing to show for myself. Not even a home. And Earth sounded so... exotic.

THE DOCTOR
S'pose it is, yeah.

ASTRID
How come you know it so well?

THE DOCTOR
I was sort of, um... few years ago, I was sort of made, well... sort of homeless, and... There was the Earth.

Pause.

MR COPPER
Thing is. If we survive this, there'll be police, and all sorts of investigations... The minimum penalty for spacelane fraud is ten years in jail. I'm an old man, I won't survive ten years!

Whunk! a blow to the metal door, from the other side -

We've got Host! Move! Come on!

- instant panic! They're all up and on their feet, moving, hopping and hauling themselves over debris -

PRAC FX: whunk! the centre of the metal door buckles -

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #3 - NIGHT

As other corridors, wrecked. The little gang of THE DOCTOR, ASTRID, MR COPPER, RICKSTON, MORVIN, FOON & BANNAKAFFALATTA hurry over debris - behind them, the echo of the whunk!

They reach a BIG DOOR & ARCHWAY, the Doctor sonics it, the door slides back -

CUT TO:

INT. CANYON - NIGHT

Door slides back, THE DOCTOR stops dead - !
CONTINUED:

FX: It's a huge Death Star-style CANYON, except the walls aren't smooth, they're all jagged metal, where many floors have fallen through as a result of the collision.

THE DOCTOR, ASTRID, MR COPPER, RICKSTON, MORVIN, FOON & BANNAKAFFALATTA are safe on a wide LEDGE, with a railing, in front of the DOOR ARCHWAY. And in front of them:

FX: THE STRUT. (In fact, a BRIDGE - only called the Strut here to differentiate it from the Ship's Bridge.) Like a huge, long, thick, horizontal piece of metal has fallen, and stuck, lodging across the gap, from their ARCHWAY to an identical ARCHWAY, on the opposite side. The Strut's jagged & broken, about 3 feet wide, 6 feet deep; like a tree across a river. (NB, STRUT is PRAC BUILD in most shots, its surroundings seen in FX shots; for non-FX shots, the canyon walls around it could be a pitch-black void..?)

Is that the only way across..?

THE DOCTOR
On the other hand: it is a way across.

ASTRID
Look, the engines are open.

Peering down:

FX: at the bottom of the drop, half a mile down: a huge glowing ball, a CORE OF ENERGY, slowly rotating.

THE DOCTOR
Nuclear Storm Drive. Soon as it stops, the Titanic falls.

MORVIN
But that thing, it's never gonna take our weight.

RICKSTON
You're going last, mate.

THE DOCTOR
It's nitrofine metal. Stronger than it looks.

MORVIN
All the same, Rickston's got a point, me and Foon should go la-

- no warning - the railing in front of Morvin snaps, and he drops like a stone -

FX: MORVIN falls down into the canyon, towards the glowing Core, screaming all the way!

CONTINUED: (2)

FOON
Morvin! Morvin!!

She drops to her knees, screaming over the edge - others shocked, step back - Astrid & the Doctor grabbing Foon -

RICKSTON
I told you!

MR COPPER
Shut up, just shut up, shut up!

FOON
Bring him back! Can't you bring him back? Doctor, bring him back!

THE DOCTOR
I can't, I'm sorry, I can't -

FOON
You promised me!

THE DOCTOR
I know, I'm sorry, I'm sorry...

And he's just hugging her now, as she sobs.

Behind them, from the corridor, louder whunks! and a crash -

MR COPPER
Doctor, I rather think those things have got our scent.

RICKSTON
Well I'm not waiting -

And he starts across the Bridge - scrambling -

THE DOCTOR
Careful - ! Take it slowly!

A few feet across, the Bridge shudders, creaks, Rickston stops, drops to all-fours, terrified -

FX: HIGH SHOT, RICKSTON frozen on the STRUT, the CORE below.

RICKSTON
Oh my Vot, ohh my Vot...

The Doctor leaves Foon, to stand and call across -

THE DOCTOR
You're okay! Step at a time. Come on. You can do it.

Rickston stands. Wobbles. Balances. A step at time...

In the Archway, louder crashes from the corridor beyond -

CONTINUED: (3)

MR COPPER
They're getting closer.

THE DOCTOR
I've got to seal us off...

He sonics the door, it slides shut.

MR COPPER
Leaving us trapped, wouldn't you say?

THE DOCTOR
Never say trapped. Just... inconveniently circumstanced.

CUT TO Rickston. Careful steps over the uneven surface...

His foot slips, dislodging METAL SLATES -

FX: WIDE SHOT, Rickston all-fours, SLATES falling down...

RICKSTON
I'm okay, I'm okay...

CUT TO Foon & Astrid, on the floor of the Archway.

FOON
He might be all right, maybe there's a gravity curve down there, I dunno, he might be unconscious...

ASTRID
I'm sorry, Foon. He's gone.

FOON
What am I gonna do without him?

And she hugs Astrid, crying.

CUT TO Rickston - deep breath, he runs the last length -

- reaching the OPPOSITE ARCHWAY, hugs the wall. (It has a similar surrounding ledge; its door closed.)

RICKSTON
Yes! Oh yes! Who's good?!

MR COPPER
Luck of the devil.

THE DOCTOR
Bannakaffalatta, you go next.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Bannakaffalatta small!

And he scampers across the Bridge...

CONTINUED: (4)

THE DOCTOR

Slowly!

FX: WIDE SHOT, Bannakaffalatta now edging slowly across...

PRAC FX - whunk! - the Archway door behind them buckles -

MR COPPER

They've found us!

THE DOCTOR

Astrid, get across, right now -

ASTRID

What about you?

THE DOCTOR

Just do it, go on!

Astrid starts across, one careful step at a time -

The whunks! get louder, PRAC BUCKLING of the metal -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Mr Copper. I don't think we can wait, after you. Don't argue!

And Mr Copper starts across...

FX: WIDE SHOT, Bannakaffalatta halfway over, Astrid following, then Mr Copper, all slow, slipping, wobbling...

The Doctor kneels by Foon, whunks! in b/g...

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Foon, you've got to get across.

FOON

What for? What am I going to do without him?

THE DOCTOR

Just think, what would he want? He'd want you safe, wouldn't he?

FOON

He doesn't want anything, he's dead!

CUT TO Rickston, in the opposite Archway, yelling across -

RICKSTON

Doctor! I can't open the door! It's locked, we need that... whirring key thing of yours -

THE DOCTOR

I can't leave her!

CONTINUED: (5)

RICKSTON
You'll get us all killed if we can't get out!

The Doctor trapped - argh! - whunk!, whunk!, whunk! -

THE DOCTOR
Mrs Van Hoff. I'm coming back for you. All right?

She doesn't even look at him, just crying.

And he's got no choice, he starts across the Strut...

Bannakaffalatta, just over halfway, calls back:

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Too many people!

THE DOCTOR
Oy. Don't get spiky with me. Just keep going!

FX: WIDE SHOT, Bannakaffalatta, then Astrid, then Mr Copper, then the Doctor, all edging across the creaking Strut -

CUT TO Foon, shuffling back into the corner of the Archway, curling into a ball, crying, the whunks! above her.

CAMERA SHAKE, the Strut jolts! - they drop to all fours -

ASTRID
It's gonna fall - !

THE DOCTOR
No, it's just settling. Keep going.

Astrid gets to her feet, continues taking careful steps...

CUT TO the Doctor, edging along on all fours, and then...

He stops. Stands. Looking round. Because...

The whunks have stopped.

Ominous silence. Hushed:

ASTRID
...they've stopped.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Gone away.

THE DOCTOR
But why would they give up..?

RICKSTON
Never mind that, keep going!

Continued: (6)

The Doctor
But where've they gone?

Mr Copper
Ohh, I'm afraid we forgot the traditions of Christmas. That angels have wings.

And he's looking up.... The others look up, in dread...

Fx: A host descending, serene, metal wings unfurled.

Fx: wide shot, reveal five flying host descending upright from above, around the strut, wings unfurled, glorious. They stop mid-air, suspended, forming a circle a good few feet above the strut, removing and holding their haloes...

Cu host, halo in hand.

Host
Information: kill.

The Doctor
Arm yourself! All of you!

And he rips a stick of metal out of the strut's loose floor - Astrid does the same - and Mr Copper, and Bannakaffalatta -

Cu host, it throws its halo -

Fx: wide shot [Fx shot 77/11 continued], all five host throw haloes - the haloes swoop and glide through the air, deadly frisbees -

Fx: the doctor swings his stick like a bat, sparks fly as he hits a halo, sends it zinging away -

Fx: astrid swings, hits a halo, spins round to hit a second -

Fx: Mr Copper swings, awkward, but hits a halo -

Fx: wide shot, the haloes not stopping, programmed to keep attacking, swooping up and round the canyon to attack again -

Cu doctor, swinging, hitting -

Cu Astrid, swinging, hitting -

Cut to Rickston, cowering back in his archway -

Cut to Foon, curled up but watching, crying, in her archway -

Fx: Bannakaffalatta swings, hits a halo -

Fx: the doctor misses, a halo slices across his arm - rips the sleeve, wounds him - aaah! -

CONTINUED: (7)

FX: Mr Copper on his knees, lashes out - misses, a Halo slices across his shoulder, cuts him -

INTERCUT all this with CU Host, staring down, impassive -
CU Astrid, swinging, but desperate -

ASTRID
I can't...

But Bannakaffalatta throws down his stick -

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Bannakaffalatta stop!

- rips open his shirt, metal torso -

BANNAKAFFALATTA (CONT'D)
Bannakaffalatta proud!

- he stabs his buttons - his lights flash like crazy -

ASTRID
(realising)
No, don't -!

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Bannakaffalatta cyborg!

FX: Bannakaffalatta stands proud as whuppp!, a pulse of energy - a blue circular ripple - blasts out of his body -

FX: WIDE SHOT; the transparent blue circle ripples out from Bannakaffalatta, across the canyon, over the Host -

CU Host - PRAC SPARKS, it jerks, shudders, malfunctioning -

FX: WIDE SHOT, Host & Haloes deactivated, drop like stones -

One Host slams down flat, dead as a dummy, on to the Strut, along with a Halo, between the Doctor and the first Archway -

But Bannakaffalatta's now lying on the Strut. Dying. Astrid scrambles over - steps to the far side of him - Mr Copper & the Doctor following.

THE DOCTOR
Electromagnetic pulse. Knocked out the robotics, Bannakaffalatta, that was brilliant!

ASTRID
But he used all his power.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
...did good...?

ASTRID
You saved our lives.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Bannakaffalatta happy.

ASTRID
We can recharge you, we can get you to a powerpoint, all we need to do is plug you in.

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Too late.

ASTRID
No, but you've got to buy me that drink, remember?

BANNAKAFFALATTA
Pretty girl.

He smiles.

Closes his eyes.

And Bannakaffalatta dies.

Silence. All looking down.

Astrid crying a little, pulls his shirt across the metal, out of respect.

Then Mr Copper gently reaches down to Bannakaffalatta's torso, starts to unclip a metal baton from the main panel.

MR COPPER
I'm sorry, forgive me, but...

ASTRID
Leave him alone.

MR COPPER
No, but it's the E.M.P. transmitter, he'd want us to use it. I used to sell these things, they'd always give me a bed for the night, in the Cyborg Caravans. Good people.

Pulls it free; the baton is a bit like a gun.

MR COPPER (CONT'D)
If we can recharge this, we can use it against the rest of the Host. A weapon! Bannakaffalatta might have saved us all.

RICKSTON
D'you think? Try telling him that.

Rickston means, behind them -
The HOST which fell on to the Strut is lurching, but getting to its feet (wings folded now), picking up its Halo -

HOST
Information: reboot.

RICKSTON
Use the E.M.P.!!

Mr Copper & Astrid frantic, with the baton, clicking buttons -

MR COPPER
There's no power, it's dead -

ASTRID
It's gotta have emergency!

RICKSTON
Doctor! Give me that key! Throw it! Doctor, throw it to me!

The Host now upright, calm, lifts its arm to throw...

The Doctor faces it, Astrid & Mr Copper cower behind him.

THE DOCTOR
No! But! Hold on! Override! Loophole! Security Protocol... ten! Um, 666? Uhh, 21? 45678? I don't know, 42? Oh! One!

The Host stops. Lowers its arm.

HOST
Information: state request.

THE DOCTOR
Good! Right. You've been ordered to kill the survivors, but why?

HOST
Information: no witnesses.

THE DOCTOR
But this ship's gonna fall on the Earth and kill everyone, and the Human Race has got nothing to do with the Titanic, so that contravenes your orders, yeah?

HOST
Information: incorrect.

THE DOCTOR
But... why d'you want to destroy the Earth?..?

HOST
Information: it is the plan.

THE DOCTOR
What plan?

HOST
Information: protocol grants you only three questions, these three questions have been used -

THE DOCTOR
Well you could've warned me!

HOST
Information: now you will die.

And it lifts up its arm...

Astrid & Mr Copper back away, Rickston cringes, the Doctor picks up a metal stick, readies himself, the last defence...

The Host holds its Halo in front...

Ready to throw...

When a loop of rope goes over its head, around its chest - Foon, standing behind it - and she's been in her cowgirl costume, all this time, now using the lasso from her belt, the other end wrapped tight around her wrist.

FOON
You're coming with me.

And she jumps -

The Host is yanked with her - !

FX: Foon and Host tumble down, down, down, into the Core.

Silence. Astrid upset, crying, Mr Copper hugs her. The Doctor sinks to his knees on the Strut, exhausted.

Hold.

Then the Doctor lifts his head. Fire in his eyes.

THE DOCTOR
No more.

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #4 - NIGHT

An open doorway blocked by a GIRDER, but with a gaaaah! - THE DOCTOR pushes it, it topples. The Doctor leaps into the corridor - wrecked, as others, some PRAC FLAMES - ASTRID, MR COPPER & RICKSTON following. Energy, top speed:

THE DOCTOR

Right! Get yourselves up to Reception One, once you're there, Mr Copper, you've got staff access to the computer, try to find a way of transmitting an SOS, Astrid - (takes the baton)
- you're in charge of this, once it's powered up, it'll take out Host within 50 yards, but then it needs 60 seconds to recharge, got that? Rickston, you take this -
(the sonic)
- I've pre-set it, just hold down that button, it'll open the doors, Do Not Lose It, got that? Now go and open the next door, go on, go! (Rickston runs off)
Mr Copper, you've been injured, I need you fighting fit -

Grabbing First Aid Box off the wall, throws it to Mr Copper -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Astrid, where's the powerpoints?

ASTRID

Over here -

She runs to a wall, the Doctor joins her, and as he holds the baton next to a wall-plug, which lights up -

THE DOCTOR

D'you see, when it's ready, that blue light comes on, there.

Both quieter now, more intimate:

ASTRID

You're talking like you're not coming with us.

THE DOCTOR

There's something down on Deck 31. I'm gonna find out what it is.

ASTRID

But what if you meet the Host?

THE DOCTOR

Oh, I'll just... have some fun!

(smiling)

Sounds like you do this sort of thing all the time.
THE DOCTOR
Not by choice. All I do is travel, that's what I am, just a traveller. Imagine it! No tax, no bills, no boss. Just the open sky.

ASTRID
...I'm sort of... unemployed now. I was thinking, that blue box was kind of small, but... I could squeeze in. Like a stowaway.

THE DOCTOR
...I suppose.

ASTRID
Was that a yes or a no?

THE DOCTOR
It's not always safe.

ASTRID
Then you need someone to look after you. And I've got no one back on Sto, no family. Just me. What d'you think? Can I come with you?

THE DOCTOR
Yeah. I'd like that, yeah.

Big smile between them. Then -

CAMERA SHAKE - the corridor lurches, PRAC RUBBLE - and this time, the corridor keeps shuddering, as the Doctor leaps to a COMMS PANEL (screen still playing sc.7):

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Mr Frame, still with us - ?

CONTINUES INTERCUT WITH -

CUT TO:

79 INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

BRIDGE SHAKING, MIDSHIPMAN FRAME on COMMS:

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
It's the engines, sir. Final phase! There's nothing more I can do, we've only got eight minutes left -

BIGGER CAMERA SHAKE -

CUT TO:
EXT. FX SHOT - NIGHT

FX: THE WRECKED TITANIC, creaking, groaning, small GOUTS
OF FLAME around the ENGINES, fragments flying out -

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #4 - NIGHT

CAMERA SHAKE slowly subsiding, THE DOCTOR on COMMS:

THE DOCTOR
Don't worry, I'll get there.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
But the Bridge is sealed off!

THE DOCTOR
Yep! Working on it! I'm gonna get there, Mr Frame. Somehow!
(the baton beeps)
All charged up!

He shoves the baton to ASTRID, runs back to the first door -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Mr Copper, look after her. Astrid, look after him. Rickston, look after yourself. And I'll see you again. That's a promise -

ASTRID
Hold on a minute. There's an old tradition on Planet Sto...

She's taking a BOX out of the rubble, carries it to him.

THE DOCTOR
I've really got to go -

Just wait.

She plonks the box in front of him.

Stands on it.

Then grabs his jacket, pulls him in for a good kiss!

Then lets go, both smiling.

THE DOCTOR
That's a very old tradition.

ASTRID
See you later.

THE DOCTOR
Oh yes.

Rubble, etc. ASTRID, MR COPPER & RICKSTON heading up...

CUT TO:

INT. STAIRWELL - NIGHT

THE DOCTOR hurrying down...

CUT TO:

INT. SHIP CORRIDOR #5 - NIGHT

RICKSTON sonics open the door, it slides back - THREE HOST standing there!

Rickston runs back, terrified -

RICKSTON

Do it - !

MR COPPER & ASTRID are further back, she holds up the baton -

ASTRID

Stand by!

FX: whuppp! THE BLUE RIPPLE bounces out from the baton -

SLAM! CU HOST'S HEAD hitting the floor, deactivated.

Mr Copper, Astrid and Rickston overjoyed, whooping!

CUT TO:

INT. KITCHEN CORRIDOR - NIGHT

THE DOCTOR heading along, as fast as he can - bodies of kitchen staff in the debris (no faces visible) - when -

THREE HOST appear at the far end.

The Doctor turns back -

THREE MORE HOST at the opposite end. They unclip Haloes...

Wait wait wait, Security Protocol
One! D'you hear me? One! One!!

They pause.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Okay. That gives me three questions. Three questions to save my life, am I right?

HOST
Information: correct.

THE DOCTOR
No, that wasn't one of them, I didn't mean it, that's not fair!
Can I start again?

HOST
Information: no.

THE DOCTOR
No no no, that wasn't a question either! Oh blimey. One question left. One question. So! You have orders to kill the survivors, but survivors must therefore be passengers or staff, but not me,
I'm not a passenger, I'm not staff, go on, scan me, you must have biorecords, no such person on board,
I don't exist, therefore, you can't kill me, therefore, I'm a stowaway, and stowaways should be arrested and taken to the nearest figure of authority, and I reckon the nearest
final question, am I right?!

HOST
Information: correct.

THE DOCTOR
Brilliant! Take me to your leader!
Always wanted to say that.

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 1 - NIGHT
Door opens, ASTRID bursts through with the baton -
FOUR HOST scattered around the room, all turn -
FX: BLUE RIPPLE bounces out of the baton -
CU one Host, it judders, drops dead.
CONTINUED:

WIDE SHOT, all four Host lying dead in the rubble, as MR COPPER & RICKSTON follow Astrid in. The room's wrecked, but not too bad. Astrid in charge now:

ASTRID
Rickston, seal the doors, make this room secure. And keep an eye on the Host - Mr Copper, try the computer, we need that SOS!

CUT TO Rickston, going to a second door, sonicking it.

That done, he stops. Gets his breath. Sinks to the floor. Curls up. Quietly, Rickston starts to cry.

CUT TO Astrid, now on the far side of the room. She checks a dead Host, but then looks up...

She's right next to the RACK OF TELEPORT BRACELETS.

She picks one up. Realises...

Goes to a nearby COMMS PANEL (still playing sc.7).

ASTRID (CONT'D)
Bridge, this is Reception One.

SCENE CONTINUES INTERCUT WITH -

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME, wrestling with controls, while on COMMS -

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Who's that?

ASTRID
Astrid Peth, I was with the Doctor, tell me, can you divert power to the teleport system?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
No way. I'm using everything I've got to keep the engines going.

ASTRID
Just one trip, I need to get to Deck 31.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
And I'm telling you, no!

ASTRID
(stronger)
Mr Frame. It's for the Doctor. He's gone down there, on his own, and I can't just leave him.

ASTRID (CONT'D)
He's done everything he can to save us, now it's time we did something for him.

Frame hesitates. Damn it! Then stabs buttons...

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 1 - NIGHT
MR COPPER ripping wires out of a dead Host, when -
CONTINUED:

ASTRID
Mr Copper. I'm going to find him.

MR COPPER
...good luck.

FX: teleport glow, ASTRID disappears.

CUT TO:

INT. HOST STORAGE, DECK 31 - NIGHT

TWO HOST lead THE DOCTOR in, as guards. A THIRD HOST already there, standing sentinel. The Doctor looking up...

FX: DMP WIDE SHOT, looking up, a hole ripped through the floors of the Titanic, leading up above, huge height.

THE DOCTOR
Wow. That's what you'd call a fixer-upper. Come on then, Host with the most. This ultimate authority of yours, who is it?

The third Host goes to the wall - actually a hidden DOOR. Host presses a button, the door slides back...

PRAC STEAM blasting out, like a seal's been broken. Beyond, black space. But with lights glinting from inside...

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Ohh, clever, that's a Omnistate Impact Chamber. Indestructible! You could survive anything, in there, you could sit through a supernova. Or a shipwreck.

Something glides out, into the light...

Clanking, whirring, lights shining...

It is a METAL BOX, 5 feet tall, 3 feet wide, blinking with computer panels, though driven by great big industrial wheels. Laced with tubes; it's a mobile life-support for the SEVERED HEAD on top: pale and ghastly, white cataract eyes, it sticks out of the top of the box, plugged into the tubes, a ventilator hissing away. As it glides out:

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
But only one person could have the power and the money to hide themselves on board like this.

(imitates advert)
And I should know, cos...

MAX
My name's Max.

And the HEAD OF MAX CAPRICORN smiles -

FX: his GOLD TOOTH goes ding!

THE DOCTOR
Oh, it really does that!

MAX
Who the hell is this?

THE DOCTOR
I'm the Doctor, hello!

HOST
Information: stowaway.

MAX
Kill him.

THE DOCTOR
No! But you can't, not now, come on, Max, you're giving me so much good material! Like... how to get a head in business. D'you see? Head? Head? No? Head?

MAX
Ohhh, the office joker.

THE MAX-BOX trundles towards the Doctor, wheels clanking, gears grinding, the box hissing STEAM. Ghastly smile:

MAX (CONT'D)
I like a funny man. No one's been funny with me for years.

THE DOCTOR
Can't think why.

MAX
A hundred and seventy six years of running the company have taken their toll.

THE DOCTOR
Yeah, but... nice wheels.

CUT TO the far end of the room, ASTRID sneaking through a gap in the wall. Crouching down, hidden by debris, watching -

MAX
A life support system, in a society that despises cyborgs. I've had to hide away for years, running the company by hologram.

(turns to -)

HOST
Situation report!

HOST
Information: Titanic still in orbit.
MAX

Let me see...
He turns, whirrs, clanks, going to a ledge, with a railing, at the end of the room.

FX: WIDE, LEDGE, THE MAX-BOX perched above canyon walls.

MAX (CONT'D)
We should've crashed by now, what's gone wrong..?

FX: HIS POV, the drop, then the CORE OF ENERGY far below.

MAX (CONT'D)
The goddamn engines are still running, they should have stopped.

THE DOCTOR
But when they do, the Earth gets roasted, I don't understand, what's Earth got to do with it?!

MAX
This interview is terminated -

THE DOCTOR
No, but hold on, wait! I can work it out, it's like a task, and I'm your apprentice, just watch me -

Max clanks back towards him, fascinated...

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
- so! The business is failing, then you wreck the ship, so that makes things even worse... Oh! Yes! No. Yes! The business isn't failing, it's failed, past tense!

MAX
My own board voted me out. They stabbed me in the back.

THE DOCTOR
If you had a back.

CUT TO Astrid, creeping carefully across the space, just a few feet, keeping low, heading for something...

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
So! You scupper the ship - wipe out any survivors, just in case anyone's rumbled you - and the board find their shares halved in value. Ohh, but that's not enough, no! Cos if a Max Capricorn ship hits the Earth, it destroys an entire planet - outrage back home, scandal! The business is wiped out!

MAX
And the board thrown in jail, for mass murder.
THE DOCTOR
While you sit there safe, inside the Impact Chamber.

MAX
I have men waiting to retrieve me from the ruins, and enough offworld accounts to retire to the beaches of Penhaxico Two. Where the ladies are fond of metal, so they say.

The Doctor furious now:

THE DOCTOR
So that's the plan. A business plan. A retirement plan!! Two thousand people on this ship, six billion underneath us, all of them slaughtered, and why? Because Max
Capricorn's a loser!

MAX
(furious)
I never lose!

THE DOCTOR
You can't even sink the Titanic!

MAX
Oh, but I can, Doctor! I'll cancel the engines from here -

CU Max's panel, a BIG RED LIGHT flashes, veep-veep-veep -

CUT TO:

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT
BIG RED LIGHT flashes, veep-veep-veep -
PRAC EXPLOSIONS on the computer banks!

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
No no no - !

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 1 - NIGHT
SLIGHT CAMERA SHAKE, the room trembling, just a little.
MR COPPER & RICKSTON look up, PRAC FX DUST trickling down...

RICKSTON
What's happening..?
INT. HOST STORAGE, DECK 31 - NIGHT

SLIGHT CAMERA SHAKE, room trembling -

ASTRID hidden, but looking round, making up her mind...

THE DOCTOR furious -

THE DOCTOR
You can't do this - !

MAX
Hold him!

The two HOST flanking the Doctor grab his arms, iron grip.

MAX (CONT'D)
Not so clever now, Doctor.

THE DOCTOR
Oh d'you think? Like I said: watch me.

(at the third Host)
You there, Host! Security Protocol One! Three questions! You work for Max Capricorn, yes?

HOST
Information: correct.

THE DOCTOR
Max Capricorn is a cyborg, yes?

HOST
Information: correct.

THE DOCTOR
But according to your society, cyborgs are inferior, so you should accept my commands instead of his, yes? Yes? What d'you say, yes??

HOST
Information: no.

THE DOCTOR
What?! Why's that then?

HOST
Information: your three questions have been used.

MAX
But I can answer that. They're robots, Doctor. To them, cyborgs are practically family.

THE DOCTOR
Information: damn!
MAX
Nice try, though. Shame we couldn't work together, you're rather good. All that banter, and yet not a word wasted. But it's time for me to retire. The Titanic is falling; the skies will burn; let the Christmas inferno commence.

He turns away, hissing, clanking.

MAX (CONT'D)
Host. Kill him.

While the two Host hold the Doctor, gripping his arms, the third HOST, standing across the room, takes down its Halo.

The Doctor struggling like mad -

The Host takes aim...

When...

ASTRID
Mr Capricorn!

Max turns -

The Doctor turns -

CU ASTRID.

JUMP CUT WIDER, Astrid in a seat.

JUMP CUT WIDER, Astrid in the seat of the FORK LIFT TRUCK!

ASTRID (CONT'D)
I resign.

CU her hand slamming off the handbrake -

CU FORK LIFT TRUCK WHEELS, racing -

The FORK LIFT TRUCK speeds across the room -

CU THE MAX-BOX grinding, Max furious, turning to face it -

CU Astrid, driving, fierce -

CUT TO The Doctor, trapped, still held tight -

THE DOCTOR
- Astrid, don't - !

WHAM! CU Astrid thrown forward, jerking back -

WIDER: THE FORK LIFT TRUCK and THE MAX-BOX, slammed up against each other, two machines, both with engines at full throttle, both straining, neither one giving way -

FX: Astrid flinches, but the Halo hits the cage of the driver's seat, SPARKS, zings away -

CU ASTRID, cranking the gears up...

CU MAX, snarling at her...

FX: the ding! of his GOLD TOOTH.

THEN SLOW MOTION: Astrid looks across at the Doctor.

SLOW MOTION: the Doctor, trapped, looking at Astrid. Knowing what she's going to do. He says quietly, no...

Normal speed again - she cranks the gear up to maximum -

- Astrid's foot slams all the way down on the accelerator -

CU FORK LIFT WHEELS, PRAC SMOKE, but they suddenly SHOOT FORWARD, fast -

WIDE SHOT, the FORK LIFT TRUCK scooping up the MAX-BOX, and racing forward, fast -

FX: HIGH SHOT, TRUCK & MAX-BOX shooting towards the edge, the railing, with the drop below -

RAILING FOREGROUND - it SHATTERS, broken by the Max-Box being pushed through, the fork lift truck following, fast -

BCU Astrid, tilting fast, dropping -

Both HOST suddenly release the Doctor, jerking hands up in a surrender position (ie, control over them broken), leaving him to belt forward -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)

Astriiiiiid - !

At the edge, his POV -

FX: with the MAX-BOX furthest down, screaming its way down into the depths, the FORK LIFT TRUCK beside it, on Astrid: she's free of the driver's cage, but is falling, falling, falling, down, down, down, looking up at the Doctor...

On the Doctor.

FX: the SHAFT empty now. A last flare of power from the CORE, then it dies, fades to black.

CONTINUED: (3)

The Host gently bow their heads, hands in prayer position; their default, but now like a lamentation.

And now HOLD THE CU ON THE DOCTOR. Devastated. Staring down. CAMERA SHAKE increases.

But the noise fades down, to silence.

And the music soars; an aria.

On the Doctor.

MIX his CU with images from...

MIX TO:

INT. BRIDGE - NIGHT

SLOW MOTION. SOUNDELESS, music only.

PRAC EXPLOSIONS from the computer banks, beautiful in slow-motion, sparks arcing, with MIDSHIPMAN FRAME desperate, trying to use the controls, but having to shield himself.

MIX TO:

INT. HOST STORAGE, DECK 31 - NIGHT

SLOW MOTION, SOUNDELESS. Music only.

On THE DOCTOR, as he walks back into the room.

Lost. Alone.

PRAC RUBBLE falling around him, but it's like he doesn't notice, doesn't care.

NORMAL SPEED, though still soundless, music only, as the Doctor stands between the two Host again. They heads bowed.

He stands there.

CONTINUED:

So tired.

Then, eyes dead, he just lifts his hand.

Clicks his fingers.

Both Host slowly raise their heads.

Still grim, the Doctor offers out both his arms, the crook of his elbows. Both Host hook arms round his elbows.

The two Host look up.

FX: WIDE SHOT, the two HOST now with WINGS UNFURLED, and they FLY! Carrying the Doctor with them, three-in-a-row, whooshing up, up, up into the DMP heights -

CUT TO:

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
- there's nothing we can do, there's no power, the ship's gonna fall -

THE DOCTOR
What's your first name?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Alonso.

THE DOCTOR
You're kidding me.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Why...?

THE DOCTOR
That's something else I've always wanted to say. Allons-y, Alonso!

And he grips the Wheel as the whole room LURCHES - !

CUT TO:

CUT TO:

INT. BRIDGE - DAY

Red light gone, stark daylight now streaming through - THE DOCTOR at the Wheel, yelling with exertion as he spins it - the TILT of the room lessening a fraction -

CUT TO:

EXT. FX SHOT - DAY

FX: THE TITANIC no longer glowing - not burnt, it's a tough old ship, now levelling up a few degrees, but still plummeting down, down, down through blue skies -

CUT TO:

INT. BRIDGE - DAY

THE DOCTOR at the Wheel, manic, spinning it, MIDSHIPMAN FRAME holding on, as the Doctor glances down -

ON SCREEN GRAPHIC: a map of LONDON, zooming in to one particular spot, marked with a red DANGER sign.

The Doctor holds the Wheel with one hand, grabs an old-fashioned BAKELITE PHONE receiver off the computer bank -

THE DOCTOR
Hello, yes, um.... could you get me Buckingham Palace?

CUT TO:

INT. NEWS 24 STUDIO - DAY

HORIZONTAL LINES VISIBLE, NEWSREADER to CAMERA:

NEWSREADER

NEWSREADER OOV

The Queen has remained in residence, in defiance of extraterrestrial attack...

CU THE DOCTOR, heaving at the Wheel, teeth gritted, like he's physically pulling the Titanic up, the room levelling back slowly towards the horizontal...

CUT TO:

EXT. BUCKINGHAM PALACE - DAY

The Palace stands proud....

FX: THE TITANIC, reaching the perigee of its downward curve, swoops in from behind the Palace...

And just misses, by an inch! Sails overhead!

CUT TO:

INT. BRIDGE - DAY

Room now horizontal, beginning to tilt slightly upwards, THE DOCTOR heaving at the wheel, now grinning -

CUT TO:

EXT. AGAINST SKY - DAY

FX: LOW ANGLE, TITANIC heading slowly upwards in b/g; the old woman standing, now framed against the sky, waving.

THE QUEEN

Thank you, Doctor! Thank you!

CUT TO:

EXT. FX SHOT - DAY

FX: THE TITANIC, more graceful now, on an upward incline, heading back to space, though at less steep an angle, sailing through the blue skies of Christmas morning.

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 1 - DAY

Daylight now streaming in, the room tilting upwards a little, debris falling away from MR COPPER & RICKSTON, still pressed up against the wall. They can't believe it. They made it! Both start to laugh.

And they hug each other, crying, overjoyed.

CUT TO:

INT. BRIDGE - DAY

Room now tilting upwards. MIDSHIPMAN FRAME slumped against the back wall, shattered, recovering. And THE DOCTOR slides down to sit with him. Exhausted:

THE DOCTOR

Used the heat of re-entry to fire up the Secondary Storm Drive.

Unsinkable. That's me.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME

...we made it.

THE DOCTOR

Not all of us.

CONTINUED:

Pause. Then suddenly -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Teleport! She was wearing a teleport bracelet!!

And he's running - !

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 1 - NIGHT

(The Titanic's back in space now, dark outside; stable, but with lights still off.) MR COPPER & RICKSTON recovering, as THE DOCTOR runs in - going straight to the TELEPORT PLINTH, starts stabbing controls -

THE DOCTOR
Rickston! Sonic - !!!

Rickston throws the sonic, the Doctor catches it -

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Mr Copper, the teleporters, have they got an emergency setting?

MR COPPER
I don't know, they should have -

THE DOCTOR
She fell, Mr Copper. She fell. What's the emergency code?

MR COPPER
Let me...

And he runs to the plinth, helps the Doctor, both frantic.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME enters, still in pain.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
What the hell are you doing...?

THE DOCTOR
We can bring her back!

MR COPPER
If a passenger has an accident, on shore leave - if they're still wearing their teleport, their molecules are automatically suspended and held in stasis... if we can just trigger the shift...

THE DOCTOR
There!

And they look, in awe:

FX (AND REPEAT): centre of the room, with a beautiful, blue star-like shimmer, ASTRID appears. Transparent; like a ghost. She just stands still, lost, her voice faint.

ASTRID
...I'm falling.

THE DOCTOR
Only halfway there, come on!!

And he's ripping out wires and sonicking like crazy.

FX: Astrid stays transparent.

ASTRID
...I keep falling.

THE DOCTOR
...feedback the molecule grid...
Boost it with the restoration matrix, no no no! Need more phase containment...

MR COPPER
(quiet, kind)
Doctor...

THE DOCTOR
No, if I can just link up the surface suspension...

MR COPPER
Doctor, she's gone.

THE DOCTOR
I just need to override the safety, I can do this, I can do it -

MR COPPER
Doctor. Let her go.

THE DOCTOR
I can do anything!!

And he kicks the plinth, savage.

And then stops.

Looks across the room.

FX: Astrid, fading a little.

ASTRID
...stop me falling.

MR COPPER
There's not enough left, the system was too damaged.

(continues)
MR COPPER (CONT'D)
She's just atoms, Doctor. An echo, with the ghost of consciousness. She's stardust.

Mr Copper, Midshipman Frame, Rickston look on in respectful silence. As the Doctor walks forward.

THE DOCTOR
Astrid Peth. Citizen of Sto. The woman who looked up at the stars and dreamt of travelling.

He faces her.

FX: Profile to profile, the Doctor and a transparent Astrid; she stares at him, lost, begging for release.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
There's an old tradition.

FX: they kiss.

Then as they separate, the Doctor lifts up the sonic.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Now you can travel forever.

He whirrs it.

Across the room, the PORTHOLE opens - black space beyond, FX: blue ripple of the oxygen field outside.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
You're not falling, Astrid. You're flying.

FX: Astrid loses corporeal form, becomes a shimmer of blue light, tiny stars, blowing gently across the room, towards the porthole...

CUT TO:

EXT. FX SHOT - NIGHT

FX: THE TITANIC suspended in space, back in a peaceful orbit above the Earth, damaged, but still majestic. And the shining STARDUST of Astrid Peth sails away from the ship, swirling past CAMERA for a second...

Then spiralling away into space, dispersing, gone.

CUT TO:

INT. TITANIC RECEPTION, DECK 1 - NIGHT

Some time later. Lighting back on. Still filled with rubble, but with some order restored.

CONTINUED:

WIDE SHOT, THE DOCTOR, MR COPPER & RICKSTON scattered across the space, just sitting there, stunned, still recovering.

CU on the Doctor. Lost in thought.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME enters – now patched up, proper bandages. During this, on the Doctor, as he wanders over to the row of TELEPORT BRACELETS, picks one up, idly.

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
I've sent the SOS. Rescue ships should be here within twenty minutes. And they're digging out the records on Max Capricorn, should be quite a story.

MR COPPER
They'll want to talk to all of us, I suppose..?

MIDSHIPMAN FRAME
Should think so, yeah. Is there any of that water left?

MR COPPER
Of course...

He hands him a water bottle. Midshipman Frame swigs, wanders over to the far end of the room, tired.

Mr Copper goes to the Doctor, sotto:

MR COPPER (CONT'D)
I think one or two inconvenient truths might come to light. Still. My own fault. And ten years in jail is better than dying.

RICKSTON
Doctor...

Rickston's walking towards them. Tearful, broken, honest.

RICKSTON (CONT'D)
I never said... Thank you.

And he suddenly hugs the Doctor, tight.

But then, as he pulls out of the hug, wiping his face, the old Rickston is recovering, that glint in his eye.

RICKSTON (CONT'D)
Funny thing is, I said Max Capricorn was falling apart. Just before the crash, I sold all my shares. Transferred them to his rivals.

(smiles)
It's made me rich. How about that?

CONTINUED: (2)

Rickston wanders away, more his old self, on his vone:

RICKSTON (CONT'D)
Salvain? Yeah, I know, just listen - check the Stock One Thousand, tell me the price on Majestic Cruises...

The Doctor still staring. Boiling. Mr Copper quiet, wise:

MR COPPER
Of all the people to survive.
He's not the one you would have chosen, is he?
(no reply)
But if you could choose, Doctor.
If you could decide who lives and who dies. That would make you a monster.

The Doctor looks at him properly. Smiles.

THE DOCTOR
Mr Copper.

Hands him a teleport bracelet.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
I think you deserve this.

Mr Copper realises what he means, puts on the bracelet, as the Doctor gets a second bracelet, puts it on.

Then the Doctor looks across the room. Midshipman Frame, far across the space, knows what he's about to do.

And Midshipman Frame stands tall. Salutes the Doctor.

The Doctor salutes him. And then...

FX: TELEPORT GLOW, the Doctor & Mr Copper disappear.

CUT TO:

EXT. HILLSIDE OVERLOOKING CITY - NIGHT

SNOW falling. TWO SMALL FIGURES trudging across the barren, empty hillside, THE DOCTOR & MR COPPER.

MR COPPER
...so, Great Britain is part of Yooropee, and just across the British Channel, you've got Great France and Great Germany...

THE DOCTOR
No, just France and Germany, only Britain is great.
MR COPPER
And they're all at war with the continent of Hamerica?

THE DOCTOR
No, well, not yet, you could argue that one.... There she is!

Far off, in the snow: THE TARDIS.

JUMP CUT TO THE DOCTOR & MR COPPER next to the Tardis.
The Doctor patting it, wiping snow off. They're on the brow of the hill, the lights of a city glittering far-off.

THE DOCTOR (CONT'D)
Survive anything!

MR COPPER
Between you and me, I don't even think this is proper snow, I suspect it's the ballast from the Titanic's salvage, entering the atmosphere.

THE DOCTOR
Yeah. One of these days, it might snow for real.

Which is just chat, to delay the awkward moment:

MR COPPER
So! I take it, you'll be going?

THE DOCTOR
The open sky.

MR COPPER
And... what about me?

THE DOCTOR
I travel alone. It's best that way.

MR COPPER
Then what am I supposed to do?

THE DOCTOR
Give me that credit card.

Mr Copper hands it over, the Doctor studies it, sonics it.

MR COPPER
It's only petty cash. Spending money. All done by computer, I didn't really know the currency, I thought a million might cover it.

THE DOCTOR
A million pounds?

MR COPPER

Enough for trinkets.

THE DOCTOR

Mr Copper, a million pounds is worth fifty million credits. *

How much..?!*

THE DOCTOR

Fifty million, and fifty six. *

MR COPPER

...I've got money.

THE DOCTOR

Yes you have!

And Mr Copper takes the card. Incredulous. Then stands back, exultant, laughing to the skies.

MR COPPER

Oh my word. Oh my Vot. Oh my goodness me, yee hah!

THE DOCTOR

It's all yours. Planet Earth. Now that's a retirement plan. Just you be careful, though!

MR COPPER

I will, I will, oh I will!

THE DOCTOR

No interfering. I don't want any trouble. Just... have a nice life.

MR COPPER

I can have a house! A proper house! With a garden! And a door! Oh, Doctor! I'll make you proud!

He grabs the Doctor, kisses his cheek -

Then runs off, into the snow, towards the city, yelling:

I can have a kitchen! With chairs! And windows! And... plates!

THE DOCTOR

Um... where are you going?

MR COPPER

No idea!

THE DOCTOR

Nor me.

CONTINUED: (3)

The Doctor turns to the Tardis, gets out the key.

But Mr Copper stops, calls back, a silhouette in the snow.

    MR COPPER
    Oh, and Doctor!
    (pause)
    I won't forget her.

The Doctor just nods. Then looks up.

FX: NIGHT SKY, and in amongst the snow, just for a second, there's a glimpse of shining BLUE STARDUST, then gone.

Then the Doctor looks back across the night.

    Merry Christmas, Mr Copper.

And the Doctor goes into the Tardis.

FX: the ancient grind of engines, and the Tardis fades away, obscured by the snow, gone.
